

LUCKENBACH VOLKSMARCH
10/06/2007

Volunteers directing the parking.

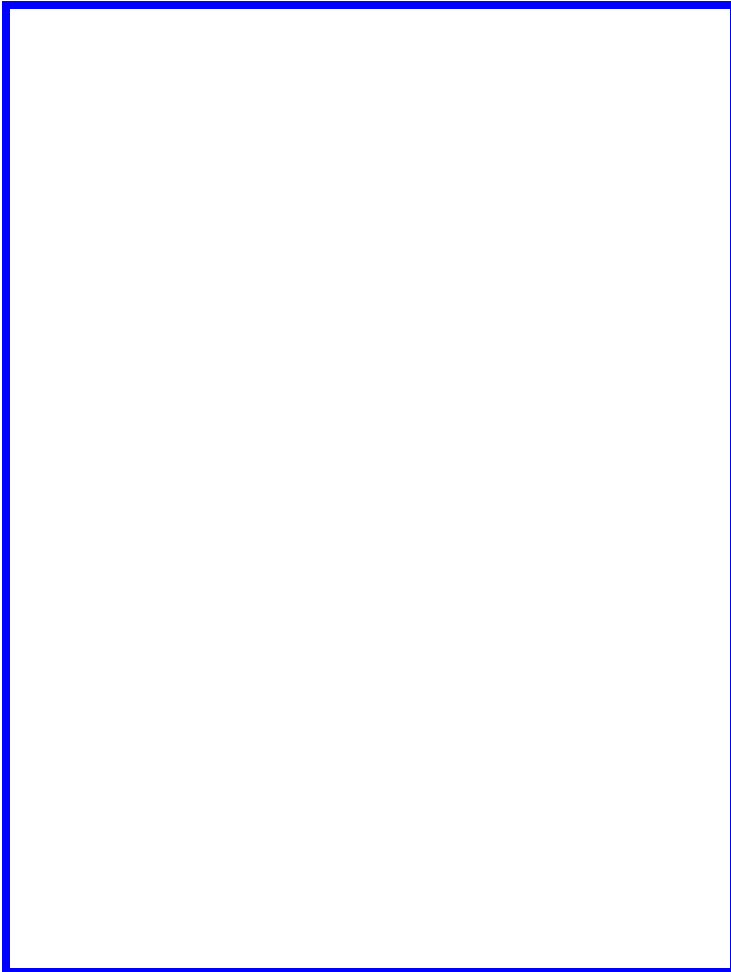

Official greeter, directing us to the start table.

Volunteers manning the start table.

Carol and Ed kidding around as I tried to take their picture in front of the beautiful flowers.

Historic Luckenbach school house.

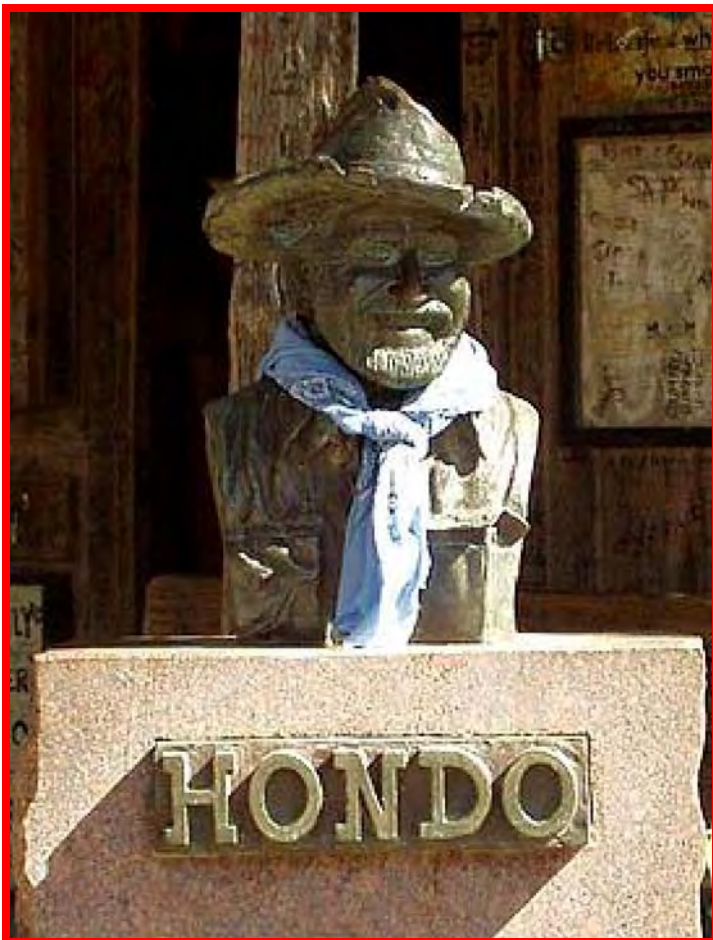

Historic Engel home.

The Tanz Halle (Dance Hall)
where (I assume) Willie,
Waylon and the boys
performed.

General Store, Post Office and Saloon.

Bust of Hondo Crouch

Luckenbach historical marker.

This was an out and back along the highway. These walkers are on the way in.

Walkers on the road ahead of us ignored instructions to walk single file along the side of the road.

Gift shop and feed store where the checkpoint and turn-around were located.

Gift shop owner/operator made this special memento for the people working the checkpoint.

Our checkpoint volunteers.

This horse and a billy goat were playing kill of the hill. The billy goat (behind hill) moved before I could get the picture taken.

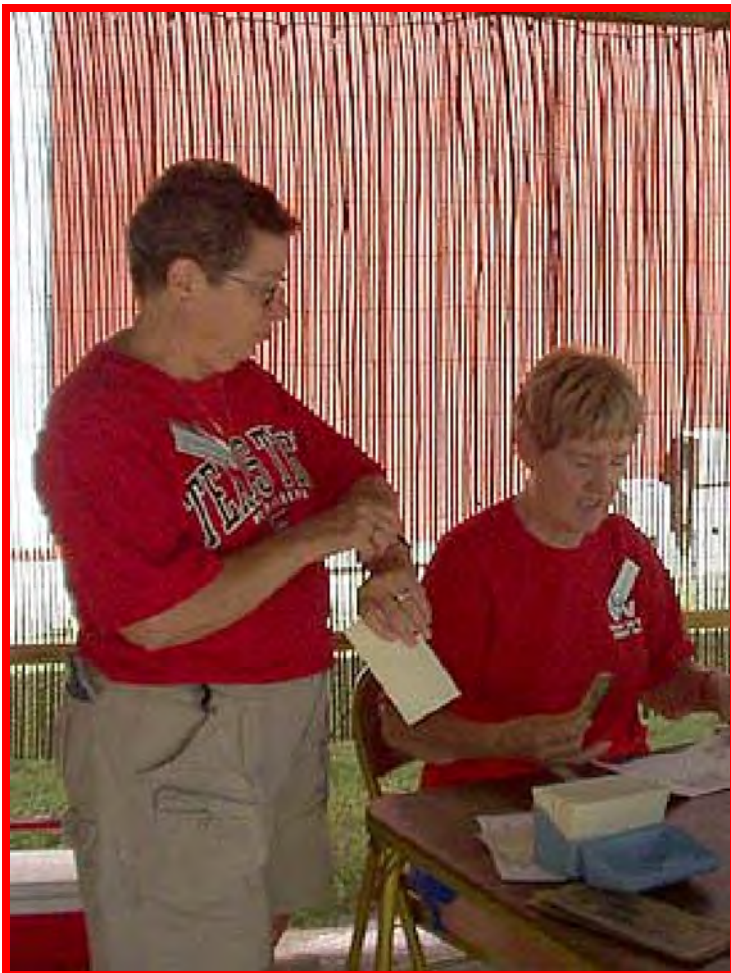

Off the main road, we could relax and enjoy walking. There were a lot of walkers at this event.

Volunteer at Checkpoint #2

Full Moon Inn
Built in 1860
Covered with beautiful flowers.
